The passenger records, West Indian passports, citizenry registers and vendor pass registrations described in this finding aid were created as part of the administrative and governmental colonial records maintained by Denmark during its colonization period of the Danish West Indies (1672-1917 for St. Thomas, 1718-1917 for St. John, and 1733-1917 for St. Croix). The original records are in the custody of the Rigsarkivet (Danish National Archives). They were preserved at an unknown date prior to 1980 on 25 reels of 35 mm microfilm.

A service copy of the 25-reel microfilm set was held by the von Scholten Collection of Enid M. Baa Public Library in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands and was actively used by researchers for many years. During a prolonged period when air conditioning was unavailable for the microfilm collection post-Hurricane Hugo (September 1989), the entire collection was irreparably damaged.

In response to a 2009 request from the Caribbean Genealogy Library and the Territorial Archives to purchase replacements for the microfilm service copies, the Rigsarkivet digitized the images in TIFF format from its master copy of the earlier microfilm and produced at its own expense a collection of 34 DVD-R discs as “a gift from the Danish National Archives to the USVI.”

The DVD collection was received by the Territorial Archives via mail by on October 14, 2010. From October 25-29, 2010, service copies of the DVD collection were prepared to promote increased access to the intellectual content. The master DVD collection copy was retained by the Territorial Archives and a service copy was distributed on DVD+R to each of the following repositories on or about February 24, 2011:

- Von Scholten Collection at Enid M. Baa Public Library, St. Thomas, USVI
- Caribbean Genealogy Library, Al Cohen’s Plaza, Raphune Hill, St. Thomas, USVI
- Territorial Archives at Florence Williams Public Library, Christiansted, St. Croix, USVI
- Whim Research Library and Archives, St. Croix Landmarks Society, St. Croix, USVI
- Special Collections at Elaine Ione Sprauve Public Library, St. John, USVI
- Sociedad Puertorriqueña de Genealogía, Universidad Interamericana de Hato Rey, Puerto Rico
- Archives and Records Management Unit of the Deputy Governor's Office, Road Town, Tortola, BVI

Over the next several months a Finding Aid was prepared by Territorial Coordinator for Archives Susan Laura Lugo and the first edition was produced in February 2011. Each repository received one service copy set of the DVD collection and two print-outs of the finding aid. It is expected that the finding aid will also be made accessible electronically to the public through the Territorial Archives website.

The Territorial Archives gratefully acknowledges the generosity of the Rigsarkivet (Danish National Archives), and is especially grateful to Danish National Archivist Asbjørn Hellum for his support to improve accessibility to these records by a wider audience of researchers. Particular thanks are expressed to Rigsarkivet Senior Researcher Erik Gøbel for his work in carrying out the digitization project and assisting in providing replacement images of these critically important passenger records for Caribbean researchers.

Others whose efforts and unfailing support of the Territorial Archives of the United States Virgin Islands have resulted in this remarkable collaborative project include the St. Thomas-based nonprofit membership research institution, Caribbean Genealogy Library; Beverly Smith, Librarian for the von Scholten Collection at the Enid M. Baa Public Library; researchers Dolores Jowers, John Jowers and Aimery Caron; Christian Douté, Systems Manager for the Division of Libraries, Archives and Museums; and the Government of the Virgin Islands.

In conclusion, it should be noted that by its very nature this finding aid is intended to remain a work in progress. As researchers resume using the records, descriptions of the collection will be improved, corrected and expanded to reflect discoveries of new or missing information, greater understanding of the records and more nuanced interpretations of movement and travel throughout the Caribbean during the years recorded herein.

Please submit suggestions for improvement, corrections or additions to this finding aid via email to the Territorial Archives at susan.lugo@dpr.gov.vi.

APPENDIX C

MISSING RECORDS

The following records appear to have date gaps.

In some cases, short gaps are naturally occurring, e.g., a gap between June 26 of year X and July 2 of year X is presumed to indicate that no ships arrived or departed during that time period, as was often the case.

Also note that some record book dates may overlap each other. Be sure to note the starting and ending dates for each book digitized.
